

Our Company

Overview

eRecruiter, LLC, is a company of recruiters, HR professionals, and technology experts passionate about the Human Resource Management (HRM) applications and services that we offer. Our scalable, open-architecture technology platform enables organizations to quickly shift their manually driven recruiting and hiring process toward an efficient, easy-to-use online solution. We work with you to ensure that everything from identifying, recruiting, assessing, hiring, and retaining quality employees is tailored to your specific needs.

eRecruiter provides a suite of applications for any organization who needs to streamline the recruiting and hiring process. Our products provide a rapid return on investment by enabling, automating, and managing the entire recruiting and hiring process from the front end to the back end. To reduce time to launch of your eRecruiter system, we make available a full set of services including implementation, integration, application hosting, art direction, and graphic design.

eRecruiter, located in Atlanta, Ga., has been built by industry experts and technology professionals. We understand the needs of today's HR professionals and have the technical expertise you need to ensure smooth implementation. We are a group of proven recruiters, published technology experts, and successful entrepreneurs.
